

Geosystems AI

The AI Visibility Intelligence Platform

Search Is Fundamentally Changing

- ChatGPT reached 100M users in 2 months
- Gemini is now in Google Search
- Claude, Perplexity, Copilot, Grok gaining traction

Search is shifting from results pages to AI assistants.

📌 The discovery channel is shifting, but brands still lack visibility into how AI represents them.

Brands Are Flying Blind

Does AI recommend us?

- No visibility into AI mentions

How does AI describe us?

- Can't verify brand accuracy

Which competitors does AI prefer?

- No AI share-of-voice benchmark

Is AI spreading misinformation?

- Hallucinations go undetected

📌 SEO tools track rankings. They don't track AI recommendations. A new software category is needed.

Introducing Geosystems AI

The AI Visibility Intelligence Platform

SCAN

Measure visibility across ChatGPT, Gemini, Claude, Perplexity, Copilot, and Grok

BENCHMARK

A trust layer for verified brand identity in AI systems.

📄 Patent-pending technology. Not replicable by incumbents. Deepens with every customer and data point.

A $100B+ Market Opportunity

1B+ AI users by 2025

$50B+ budgets shifting to AI

Emerging Market

Why Now? The Moment Is Here.

FORCE 1: AI Adoption Explosion

- ChatGPT: 200M+ users
- Gemini and Copilot are now embedded in core workflows
- Claude and Perplexity are rapidly gaining enterprise traction

FORCE 2: Buyer Behavior Shift

- High-intent buyers ask AI first
- AI recommendations now shape decisions
- Brands have zero visibility into this channel

FORCE 3: Enterprise Urgency

- Teams need AI visibility metrics
- Executives want brand protection
- Budgets are moving to new discovery channels

The last time a discovery paradigm shifted this dramatically, Google Analytics was born. This is that moment — again.
